

The High Road

by Northern Voices

I'm looking out
On that big horizon
Open and free
My spirit burns
And right next to me
Is a place for you
I can see you through
On this high road

Tonight
There's no turning back
No time for fear
It's now so clear
Cause I can see forever
On this high road
There's a light shining bright-tonight
And I'll let my past go
From now on
Cause I can see forever
On this high road

Thinking of you
I always Smile
Weary and wanting
It gets me through
It drives me on
While I'm on my own
Just until we meet again
On this high road

Tonight
Everything's new
The world's alive
I am renewed
Cause I can see forever
On this high road
And the future is bright-tonight
And I'll let my past go
From now on
Cause, I can see forever
on this high road.
